Market overview of global wealth management market

Technavios market research analyst has envisaged the global wealth management market to grow at a rapid CAGR of nearly 10% by 2019. The increasing use of SWIFT (Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication) services is expected to lead to process automation across the globe, which in turn would facilitate the systematic transfer plan by cutting the costs and risks associated with it. This will help in increasing client protection and the stability of the financial system; thus, leading to market growth.

The rising need for customer analytics is the key driver for the growth of this market. Analytics helps to understand the different customer segments and their investment pattern in different asset classes. Since customer analytics is an important tool to understand the relationship-based pricing strategies, their augmented usage during the forecast period will aid in understanding the banking needs of customers.
